

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31
32
33
34
35
36
37
38
39
40
41
42
43
44
45
46
47
48
49
50
51
52
53
54
55
56
57
58
59
60
61
62
63
64
65
66
67
68
69
70
71
72
73
74
75
76
77
78
79
80
81
82
83
84
85
86
87
88
89
90
91
92
93
94
95
96
97
98
99
100

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

INTELLIGENCE OFFICER (GS-14)

QUALIFICATIONS

1. In general, this intelligence officer should have the qualifications necessary for planning and producing intelligence in support of [REDACTED]

2. In particular, he should:

25X1X4

25X1X4

25X1X4 a. Possess a background indicating familiarity with [REDACTED] planning and operations, in either theory or practice.

b. Have a clear understanding of the psychological effects of United States policies, decisions, attitudes, conditions, and behavior on foreign peoples and governments, and how such effects bear upon United States security problems.

c. Be familiar with the psychological characteristics peculiar to conditions of actual war, cold war, and peace.

d. Be cognizant of the psychological characteristics and culture of key foreign peoples.

e. Have theoretical and practical familiarity with the methods employed in scientific attack of intelligence problems.

25X1X4 f. Have intimate and continuing familiarity with the

[REDACTED] requirements of the NSC 59 organization, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Central Intelligence Agency, and

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1X4

other agencies authorized to plan or conduct [REDACTED]

25X1X4

[REDACTED] or strategic propaganda activities.

CONFIDENTIAL